THE MESSENGER

SM
More than 29 years ago, the Souper Bowl of Caring began with a simple prayer:
"Lord, even as we enjoy the Super Bowl football game, help us be mindful of those without a bowl of soup to eat."

Since that day, $143 million has been raised for local charities across the country through

Souper Bowl of Caring. Beacon of Hope is proud to be a part of the Souper Bowl of Caring. It is BOH's biggest food collection drive of the year, providing much-needed food for the BOH Food Co-op.

This year, we're operating over two weekends: Super Bowl Sunday, February 3, and the following Sunday, February 10, when the Scout Troop 32 and Pack 32 from the Vestal area will partner with us.

We're asking for canned vegetables, canned fruit, canned meat and, of course, soup. Look for BOH collectors in our purple Souper Bowl shirts on Feb. 3 and 10, at the Welcome Center, Parish Hall entrance and CLC hallway. Help us feed our neighbors in need.

Lenten Devotionals

Submission deadline is Monday, Feb. 4

You are invited to take part by submitting an article for this year's Lenten Devotional book, authored by members of our congregation to be used throughout the season of Lent. Each devotion is a short reflection of your thoughts, feelings and/or personal experiences pertaining to this season. This is a wonderful opportunity to remember what Christ has done for you and to share your love, hope and faith with others. These inspirational booklets are provided to our congregation and homebound members, and are offered to viewers of Rejoice! They are a blessing to many.

Beginning with Ash Wednesday, the booklet will feature devotions for each Sunday in Lent and for each day in Holy Week. Your devotion should include a title, a scripture verse reference, a devotion text of no more than 250 words, and a closing prayer. Submit devotions to Barry Christmas at bearynoel@gmail.com by Monday, February 4.

SOUP KITCHEN CELEBRATION BANQUET

FEBRUARY 14, 2019

All soup kitchen volunteers, active and former, are invited to join the Day to Remember Soup Kitchen Celebration Banquet. This elegant dining event is underwritten by memorials received in honor of John von Weisenstein, a Soup Kitchen volunteer alumni who passed away in 2018. It celebrates soup kitchen volunteers and guests as well as our re-entry into Parish Hall after months of anticipation.

Our guests will meet in the gym, our temporary home. After a brief time of fellowship, we will process to Parish Hall for our homecoming feast featuring an amazing menu including roast beef carved at a station, "real" dishes, silverware, cloth napkins ... our finest and our best. Soup Kitchen guests will be seated and served.

It will be a Day to Remember; plus, it's Valentines Day, and Soup Kitchen is our love on a plate. The festivities begin at 11:00 a.m. on Thursday, February 14 in the gym.

Knight, this recital will share the artistic voices of women who leave a legacy rich with the indelible marks of beauty, strength, and determination.

Meditation Group Forming

Both clergy and health professionals continue to outline the benefits of adding the practice of personal meditation to our lives. Stress reduction and inner calm are prime motivators for many adherents, but studies also indicate benefits such as lowered blood pressure, improved sleep, a heightened immunity to colds, and an overall sense of well-being. If you are interested in becoming part of this church group, or if you have questions, call or email Gene Flintner at 865-579-3304 (home), 865-743-7363 (mobile), gnsflint@charter.net.

The session costs $35 per person (payable night of the class; cash and checks) and will certify participants in CPR and AED training for two years. To register, call the church office by Feb. 20. For questions, contact John Hollingsworth at 865-806-4477.

(Below) The first of the newly moved stained glass windows graces the Welcome Center entrance. Windows rarely seen before are now back-lit and accessible for all to enjoy.

On Wednesday, January 23, the time capsule (shown at right) was sealed and placed in its crypt located in the north wall of the Welcome Center. The capsule contents were determined by the History & Records Committee and the utmost care was taken to package items so as to preserve them. Among the treasures are photographs of the construction, a chalice, a picture directory, brochures and booklets highlighting church life and ministries, and other pieces of interest.

Dr. Dwight Wade, Church Historian, gave a brief overview of the capsule, its contents and purpose before Keith Bailey sealed the capsule and placed it in its home for the next 75 years. A small plaque designates its location (seen just behind Dr. Wade in the bottom-right photo).

CONVERSATIONS ON RACE

Upcoming Events

Book Discussion

Sunday, March 3, 5–6:30 p.m.

It's time to start reading White Rage: The Unspoken Truth of Our Racial Divide by Carol Anderson.

This academically challenging and spiritually and emotionally harrowing book is well worth your time. We will meet in room 201C on March 3, to discuss this book after covenanting together for respectful and authentic conversation. Celia Ferguson and Rev. Leah Burns will facilitate the discussion.

Meet the Author

Sunday, March 10, 5–7:00 p.m.

Speaker Rev. Rob Lee, descendant of Gen. Robert E. Lee and author of A Sin by Any Other Name: A Reckoning with the South's Past and Future, will be at Church Street on Sunday, March 10. Join us in the Parish Hall at 5:00 p.m. for a presentation by Rev. Lee and an introduction to his new book, which will be available from booksellers in early April.

The SASH Committee

Our safety is their top priority

The men and women who serve on the SASH team have a deep interest and/or expertise in the areas of Safety, Accessibility, Security, and Health. The group is comprised of security professionals (one, a former US Marshall), three experts in ADA regulations and requirements, an occupational therapist, medical professionals, and educators. They are also moms and dads, Sunday morning ushers, and the people who worship with us at Church Street.

SASH oversees details that most of us do not even notice and prepares for events that none of us like to think will happen. Because of their efforts, we benefit from a multitude of things, including:

- 3 AED devices that also contain trauma kits, as well as numerous first aid kits
- An advanced smoke alarm system and discreet police presence at Sunday services and other events as needed
- Staff and volunteers trained in the Safe Sanctuaries program to protect children
- Ushers and greeters trained to respond and/or reach a medical professional in an emergency
- Handrails, handicapped facilities, elevators and ramps, entrance carpets, hand sanitizer stations, and hearing devices

The SASH committee touches every aspect of Church Street to ensure a safe environment for all of us. Their hard work is necessary and appreciated!

WHAT IS YOUR VISION FOR CHURCH STREET?

Church Street UMC

Inclement Weather Policy

In the event of inclement weather, the Senior Pastor and Church Administrator will make a determination by 6 a.m. whether the church and CSUMC Preschool will be open. Additionally, at noon another decision will be made if the church will open in the afternoon and evening activities will take place.

Closing information will be available on the main phone line, 865-524-3048. Also, every attempt will be made to post information on social media.

CLERGY CORNER

Let's think together about . . . loving in action.

This past Sunday, Rev. Chesser blessed us all with a wonderful message about how love is an action. The words given to her by the Holy Spirit are a charge for us to keep. Through love, our faith calls us to dig in deeper and continue to hold on to one another in the midst of fear. For those who are interested, the John Wesley sermon she quoted, "On Schism" can be found here: <https://www.umcmission.org/Find-Resources/John-Wesley-Sermons/Sermon-75-On-Schism>.

Wesley began the Methodist movement with no intention to split off from the Church of England. On the contrary, Wesley hoped that the people called Methodists would find spiritual awakening through their class meetings in addition to attending Sunday worship at the local Church of England. So, when the Methodist movement in America caught on like wildfire, the movement had to adapt to the lack of ordained ministers in the new nation. With no one to administer the sacraments, Wesley appointed Thomas Coke and Francis Asbury as superintendents (essentially bishops) to help organize the Methodist people in America. Yet, Wesley himself still did not want to split from the Church of England. And so, this is where we find Wesley as he is writing his sermon, "On Schism" on March 30, 1786.

Two hundred thirty-three years later, Wesley's sermon provides a poignant message for Christians and Methodists today. Through the midst of our fear and strife, love, especially God's love, is what holds us together. No matter the reason that our hearts grow cold to one another, God's love continues to provide the spark that warms our souls to our sisters and brothers in Christ. To love one another is difficult, messy and frustrating. Yet, I think back to the musical Les Miserables and the reminder, "To love another person is to see the face of God." May we continually search to see the face of God in each other.

As you meditate on our worship this week, remember Wesley's words that Rev. Chesser left us with:

"It is the nature of love to unite us together; and the greater the love, the stricter the union. And while this continues in its strength, nothing can divide those whom love has united. It is only when our love grows cold, that we can think of separating from our brethren. And this is certainly the case with any who willingly separate from their Christian brethren. The pretences for separation may be innumerable, but want of love is always the real cause; otherwise they would still hold the unity of the Spirit in the bound of peace. It is therefore contrary to all those commands of God, wherein brotherly love is enjoined: To that of St. Paul, 'Let brotherly love continue:' — that of St. John, 'My beloved children, love one another;' — and especially to that of our blessed Master, 'This is my commandment, That ye love one another, as I have loved you' Yea, 'By this,' saith he, 'shall all men know that ye are my disciples, if ye love one another'" (II.1).

—REV. PALMER CANTLER

This past week a letter was sent to our members asking all who have already pledged to consider increasing their pledge and asking all who have not yet pledged to make a pledge in support of Church Street.

Already our financial numbers are improving. Our pledge deficit is now under $200,000. Thank you!

It is not easy to keep asking, and we do not want to replace the joy in giving with a feeling of guilt or fear. Rather, we wish to inspire in you the feeling of camaraderie that comes when we join together to bring to fruition God's plan through Church Street. It is our hope that each of us experiences total trust in God brought only by salvation in Jesus Christ, "cheerful giving" in helping one another inside and outside Church Street, and the security of a loving family that is this congregation.

If you would like to make a pledge or contribute in any way, email Kate Spencer at kspencer@churchstreetumc.org. Thank you.
