Church Street welcomes Wil Cantrell Sunday, February 10 at 9:40 a.m.

On Sunday, Feb. 10 at 9:40 a.m. in the Parish Hall, the Rev. Wil Cantrell will present information pertaining to the Commission on a Way Forward and the upcoming General Conference Special Session to be held in St. Louis, MO, the last weekend of February.

Rev. Cantrell serves as Associate Pastor of Concord United Methodist Church in Farragut. He was elected to serve on the General and Jurisdictional Conference delegations from the Holston Conference in 2012 and 2016 and 2001–2005 Executive Committee of the World Methodist Council. Wil is the author of the recently released book Unafraid and Unshamed: Facing the Future of United Methodism. All are invited and encouraged to join us for this presentation.

Beacon of Hope is proud to be a part of the Souper Bowl of Caring. It is BOH’s biggest food collection drive of the year, providing much-needed food for the BOH Food Co-op.

This year, we have spread the collection over two weekends. Last Sunday, Feb. 3 (Super Bowl Sunday) we collected over 400 cans! The collection continues this Sunday, February 10, when the Scout Troop 32 and Pack 32 from the Vestal area will partner with us.

Please bring lots of canned vegetables, canned fruit, canned meat and, of course, soup. Look for BOH collectors in our purple Souper Bowl shirts at the Welcome Center, Parish Hall entrance and CLC hallway. Help us feed our neighbors in need.

General Conference Special Session: Feb. 23–26

The purpose will be to receive and act on a report from the Commission on a Way Forward based on the recommendations of the Council of Bishops. For details and a link to the report, visit www.umc.org

How to contact Holston Conference Delegates

If you wish to write to the delegates of the Holston Conference you may send an email message to:

delegation@holston.org

Messages are forwarded to each member of the Holston Conference delegation.

United Methodist Women welcomes Dr. Sharon Jean-Philippe

Dr. Jean-Philippe is an associate professor of Urban Forestry in Wildlife and Fisheries at the University of Tennessee. She will be talking on the importance of trees and other vegetation in urban areas helping to fight pollution, create habitats for wildlife, and protect against flooding while also giving beauty to our city. She is a dynamic speaker and has many humorous stories to tell while also giving a practical message on being good stewards of our environment. There might even be a few tips on tree climbing!

Where: the Chapel

When: Tuesday, February 12 at 11:00 a.m.

Who: All are invited

Luncheon ($10) follows the program in the Parish Hall at noon. Reservations are requested; please contact the church office (524-3048) by Friday, Feb. 8.

A day to remember

SOUP KITCHEN CELEBRATION BANQUET

FEBRUARY 14, 2019

All soup kitchen volunteers, active and former, are invited to join the Day to Remember Soup Kitchen Celebration Banquet. This elegant dining event is underwritten by memorials received in honor of John von Weisenstein, a Soup Kitchen volunteer alumni who passed away in 2018. It celebrates soup kitchen volunteers and guests as well as our re-entry into Parish Hall after months of anticipation.

Our guests will meet in the gym, our temporary home. After a brief time of fellowship, we will process to Parish Hall for our homecoming feast featuring an amazing menu including roast beef carved at a station, "real" dishes, silverware, cloth napkins ... our finest and our best. Soup Kitchen guests will be seated and served.

It will be a Day to Remember; plus, it's Valentines Day, and Soup Kitchen is our love on a plate. The festivities begin at 11:00 a.m. on Thursday, February 14 in the gym.

Letters of Paul Study to begin on Sunday, Feb. 17

It appears that we have enough interested persons for the Disciple Fast Track study on the Letters of Paul to be offered. The 12-week course will begin on Sunday, February 17 at 4 p.m. in the Chiles Room. Persons interested in taking the course (and we still have room for more) must pick up their study book from Rick Isbell's office and be prepared with lesson #1 on the 17th. Cost of the study book is $15. If you are interested or want more information, please contact Rick Isbell at risbell@churchstreetumc.org.

UMW Book Review

Wednesday, February 20 at 1:30 p.m. in room 204

Nancy Christmas will be reviewing the book Embracing Wholeness: An Earth Perspective for Covenantal Living by Jessica Stonecypher. Members are invited to attend as well as any guests.

Master Arts Series recital: Tuesday, February 19 at 7:30 p.m.

Katie Johnson-Webb and Fay Adams collaborate to present By Women/For Women, a recital which celebrates and gives representation to the contributions of women to the field of music. From the stunning Sonata for horn and piano by Belgian-born, Jane Vignery, to the newly-composed, Nevertheless, She Persisted (2017), by E. Knight, this recital will share the artistic voices of women who leave a legacy rich with the indelible marks of beauty, strength, and determination.

Holy Land Trip Reflection

"And Mary kept all these things, and pondered them in her heart." Luke 2:19. As a child, I remember my mother and various Sunday School teachers trying to define "pondering" for me. During and since our January Holy Land trip, I've been pondering. Thanks to Rick and Sue's stellar planning, tour members had months in advance to prepare heart and mind for what we would experience; but even with that preparation, it all felt surreal to me when we were actually there. How could I be sitting on the Temple's Teaching Steps where Jesus taught? How could I be in a boat on the Sea of Galilee? How could I be in the dungeon in Caiaphas' House in which scholars believe Jesus spent his last night before the crucifixion?

I think the best explanation of pondering is actually "wondering about." It was with a sense of wonder that we visited the Temple Mount, Church of the Nativity, Shepherds' Field, Garden of Gethsemane, and King Herod's fortress, Masada. We walked the Via Dolorosa (the Stations of the Cross), we floated in the Dead Sea, and we sang the song, "Were You There?" near the crucifixion site. I think our group saw and did all of that with a complete sense of wonder.

Beyond what we saw and did, I also felt a sense of wonder about people—fellow tour members, strangers we met, and those who worked so hard on our behalf. We were led by Hana, whose "Guide" title is grossly inadequate; she is truly a scholar of all three Abrahamic faiths. Her lilting voice, via our headsets, kept us literally and figuratively together as we made our way through noisy city streets, closet-sized markets, and ancient ruins. Hana gave us the equivalent of a semester-length graduate course in seven days. I remember our bus driver, Muhammad, who skillfully negotiated razor sharp turns in unbelievably narrow streets. I remember nap-encouraging bus rides as well as lively meals and conversations with some 20 fellow Church Streeters and another 20 "strangers" who joined our tour group. They hailed from Arkansas, Oregon, and west Africa, and ranged in age from 25–65. Several of them chose to renew their baptismal vows in the Sea of Galilee as we watched in wonder. The Arkansas "Contingency," as they came to be known, included the "Singing Ladies," whose incredible gospel harmonies delighted not only us but also other visitors from around the world. A group of Nigerian pilgrims were visibly moved and enchanted as the Singing Ladies' voices rang out during one of their impromptu performances. During another serenade, one trio member needed a break, and Church Streeter Joy McCabe received the high honor of being invited to join the group. They exhibited "radical hospitality" to all tour members and anyone else they encountered. I found myself marveling at how quickly this common pilgrimage formed a bond that superseded denominational and geographic differences.

Some of what I remember will fade with time, but what I believe I will always keep in my heart and "ponder" is how our lives are now mysteriously linked to one another and to that very holy land. We will be forever enriched and connected by the sights, sounds, and feelings upon which we feasted for eight glorious days.

—SUE PIPER

SINGLES EVENTS

Lunch Bunch

Sunday, Feb. 10 at 12:30 p.m.

Lunch bunch will meet at Szechuan Garden on Chapman Hwy. following the second service. Host is John Waddell, 865-405-8538 or j7waddell@aol.com.

For a list of our regular weekly offerings, see the calendar on page 2.

CPR & AED Training Monday, Feb. 25, 6–9 p.m.

Church Street will host a CPR-AED Training Session on Monday, February 25 from 6:00 to 9:00 p.m. in CLC 120. The training, presented by the American Heart Association, will teach participants CPR for infants, children and adults.

The session costs $35 per person (payable night of the class; cash and checks) and will certify participants in CPR and AED training for two years. To register, call the church office by Feb. 20. For questions, contact John Hollingsworth at 865-806-4477.

Vital Ministry Needs Volunteers

We are in need of two office volunteers on Sunday mornings. It is a great way to meet new people and provide a much needed service once a month. Right now we need one volunteer from 10 a.m. to 12 noon on the 1st Sunday of the month and one volunteer from 10 a.m. to 12 noon on the 3rd Sunday of the month. Initial training is provided so persons can answer the phones and answer basic information about church events. Plus, you don't have to attend any meetings! To inquire, contact Rev. Rick Isbell at risbell@churchstreetumc.org. It's a fun and easy way to be in ministry.

CLERGY CORNER

Let's think together about acolytes!

One of the things I love most about worship at Church Street is the importance of our acolytes in helping to lead worship. Not only do we have young people serving as acolytes on Sunday mornings, but we also have acolytes (and liturgists) who assist in our Wednesday Noon Communion Service.

Acolytes have been a part of the church in one form or another for nearly two thousand years. Our acolytes minister to the church by lighting our candles for worship and processing the cross and the Bible. They assist the ushers with our morning offering. And they assist the pastors with Holy Communion, baptism, and other tasks as needed. Each week four young people volunteer to serve the church as acolytes, fifty-two Sundays per year, plus at additional services. Our acolytes are wonderful to work with and very well prepared. Next time you are in worship, I invite you take a moment to thank these young people for their service and tell them how much you appreciate their presence in worship.

In contrast to our Sunday morning acolytes, our Wednesday noon service acolytes are adults who have been trained to assist the pastors in leading these weekly services. These men and women bring the light into the worship space and assist the pastors with Holy Communion. The first time I saw the acolytes at a Wednesday service dressed in their white albs it literally took my breath away. I have never served in a church that utilized adults as acolytes. What a grand tradition Church Street is upholding by expanding this ministry to include people of all ages, and offering more opportunities for laypeople to respond to God's call to serve in leading worship.

In the near future we hope to celebrate the work of our acolytes as part of our morning worship service. But in the meantime, do take notice of these amazing servants who graciously give of their time to make our worship services beautiful and ensure that things proceed smoothly. Well done, good and faithful servants!
—REV. DAWN CHESSE

CONVERSATIONS ON RACE Upcoming Events

Book Discussion

Sunday, March 3, 5–6:30 p.m.

It's time to start reading White Rage: The Unspoken Truth of Our Racial Divide by Carol Anderson. This academically challenging and spiritually and emotionally harrowing book is well worth your time. We will meet in room 201C on March 3, to discuss this book after covenanting together for respectful and authentic conversation. Celia Ferguson and Rev. Leah Burns will facilitate the discussion.

Meet the Author

Sunday, March 10, 5–7:00 p.m.

Speaker Rev. Rob Lee, descendant of Gen. Robert E. Lee and author of A Sin by Any Other Name: A Reckoning with the South's Past and Future, will be at Church Street on Sunday, March 10. Join us in the Parish Hall at 5:00 p.m. for a presentation by Rev. Lee and an introduction to his new book, which will be available from booksellers in early April.

Rick's Pick's for Lent

The season of Lent begins with Ash Wednesday on March 6, The first Sunday of Lent is on March 10. It is now time for adult classes to think about their Lenten studies and to know what is available. Listed below are some Lenten related studies that I can recommend for classes to review for study. While I have not read all the studies, I can recommend them due to either familiarity with the material and/or the author. Please let me know if you have any questions and please do not wait to too late to order your study. Some of the studies have been done previously and can be found in our church library.

- SIMON PETER: Flawed but Faithful Disciple by Adam Hamilton, BRAND NEW 6 week + study with DVD, Leader's Guide, hardcover student book.
- CREED: What Christians Believe & Why by Adam Hamilton. Fairly new, excellent 6 week study on the Apostles' Creed. DVD, Leader Guide and student book.

JANUARY MISSIONS @ CS

Take a look at the ways Church Street United Methodist Church has been able to serve its neighbors this month!

SHARING SHOP

82 customers were able to shop at the Sharing Shop location at CSUMC. Guests could shop for clothing, toiletries, bus passes, and household items.

WHO DOESN'T LOVE BANANA PUDDING?

Guests at Soup Kitchen got a special treat in January as Jenny Cheatham made banana pudding. Bananas are usually offered as a fruit option (by the banana lady herself, Lynn Shanks).

FAMILY PROMISE

Our volunteers help to provide meals to 7 adults and 5 kids through Family Promise at Church of the Ascension. Family Promise helps homeless families stay together and develop a housing plan.

SERVICE WITH A SMILE

Speaking of Soup Kitchen, our dedicated group of volunteers helped to serve over 900 meals this month. Every guest is treated with a smile, great food, and dignity.

CONFIRMATION CLASS

Each month, the Confirmation class collects donations for Food Co-op. In December, they collected 25 jars of pasta sauce and 32 packages of pasta.
