All are Welcome at Church Street!

We believe every person is of sacred worth and created in God's image. We welcome and celebrate the gifts God has given to all persons without regard to race, color, national origin, ethnicity, age, gender, disability, status, economic condition, sexual orientation, gender identity, or religious affiliation.

We respect diversity of opinion and expressions of Christian faith. We believe God loves everyone unconditionally! As God loves us, so let us love and serve in the name of Christ.

HAPPENING AT CHURCH STREET

UMW BOOK/FILM REVIEW: JUST MERCY

All are invited to join a review and discussion of the film Just Mercy, sponsored by United Methodist Women, on Sunday, June 28, at 5:30 pm on Zoom. The book and film are based on the true story of attorney Bryan Stevenson's work in starting the Equal Justice Initiative in Alabama to give death row inmates access to free and quality legal services. Specifically, the film follows the story of Walter MacMillan, a man convicted of murder and sentenced to death in the 1980s, and how Stevenson worked for justice amidst staunch racism at all levels in the town. The film is streaming for free on Amazon during the month of June, or you can find it on YouTube. If you would like a study guide emailed to you, please contact communications@churchstreetumc.org. Join us on Zoom: <https://bit.ly/umwjjustmercy> (link is case-sensitive)

HOLSTON ANNUAL CONFERENCE MEETING - ONLINE THIS SATURDAY

There are a few ways to keep up with the Holston Annual Conference Meeting, which will take place exclusively online this Saturday, June 27, beginning at 1 pm. Anyone may register for the event by going to Holston.org and clicking on the news story about Virtual Annual Conference.

UPDATE FROM THE HOLSTON CONFERENCE COVID-19 TASK FORCE

On June 23, the Conference task force released its second edition of its protocol for returning to in-person worship. Among the highlighted changes are language shifting from recommendations to mandates as part of reopening, underscoring the need to track attendance once in-person worship begins again, and further clarification about protocols to take place during worship services. More can be found at Holston.org.
