New York Polyphony In Concert Next Week

Join us on Tuesday, March 24, at 7:30 p.m., for a concert from New York Polyphony. Praised for a “rich, natural sound that’s larger and more complex than the sum of its parts,” (NPR) New York Polyphony is regarded as one of the finest vocal chamber ensembles in the world. The show will be a sell-out, so purchase your tickets ($20 per person) now to guarantee a seat. You can buy them in the church office, online at www.churchstreetumc.org or in the Chapel hallway after both services on Sunday, March 22.

Volunteer in the Church Gardens

Spring is almost here and we need volunteers to help get the gardens of Church Street ready for the season. There are many ways you can get involved. An individual, family, small group or Sunday school class can adopt a small area. For example, they might take an area in front of a sign. They can plant and give TLC through fall. You can also partner with a gardener. You or your group can provide the muscle while one of our seasoned gardeners provide the guidance. Summer watering is another way to pitch in. You or your small group can rescue during dry spells. There are garden hoses that reach most areas. Weeding while you’re there is an optional bonus. Those who are not up to gardening are encouraged to contribute to our garden fund. The work schedule is flexible. If you are interested, please contact Mary Cartwright at 579-5617.

Nursery Volunteers Needed at Beacon of Hope

The next round of Getting Ahead classes will begin at Beacon of Hope at Vestal UMC in late March or early April. There will be two classes each week from 11:30 a.m. - 2 p.m. on Mondays and Thursdays. Depending on the number of children we have, we need a couple of volunteers to help throughout the 8-week course. Nursery volunteers are also needed for a Faith & Finance class in late April. If you are interested in volunteering, please contact Beacon of Hope program director Richard Ginn at 865-599-5047 or beaconofhopevestal@gmail.com.

Downtown Community Lenten Services

Each Wednesday during Lent, the Downtown Cooperative Ministry hosts a mid-week service. Each service begins at noon and lasts approximately 30 minutes. Lunch follows the service and donations are appreciated. The last service will be held on Wednesday, March 25, at First Presbyterian Church.

Easter Food Drive

The Beacon of Hope ministry continues to serve the needs of those in South Knoxville. You can help by participating in the Easter food drive. Please purchase the following items and place them in the designated bin located outside the kitchen across from room 118: canned ham, 5 pound bag of potatoes, canned fruit, dessert mixes (cakes, brownies, etc.), sugar/sugar substitute, flour, and oil. These items will go a long way towards helping the families we serve. Thank you!

Smiling Faces Needed

The Welcome and Outreach Committee is looking for Sunday morning greeters! As we attempt to cover all of our entrances and more effectively welcome everyone who enters Church Street, we would like YOU to consider helping. Greeting is a fun and easy way to serve our large, but very friendly church. Greeters serve for about 25 minutes, one Sunday per month by opening doors, answering questions (resources provided), and most importantly, extending a warm welcome and offering a smiling face to our church family. It is a great way to catch up with old friends and make new ones! If you would like more information or to sign up, contact Cindy Hollingsworth at 363-1124 or cindyhollingsworth@comcast.net

Reflections

—Rev. Andy Ferguson

We build Church Street United Methodist Church for a future we can only imagine.

I recall a day when the list of occupations in a community was fairly short. One church I served was made up of farm families. Another church included several school teachers. That was the list of occupations. It was a simple list; each occupation was easily understood. The church's schedule was easily adjusted for the harvest when workers were in the fields and other times when workers were available for activities.

The list of occupations today runs pages in length -- if it is printed on paper, which it probably is not. Repeatedly, I run into people who work at jobs that I cannot imagine. My son and daughter work in occupations that did not even exist when I was just starting out.

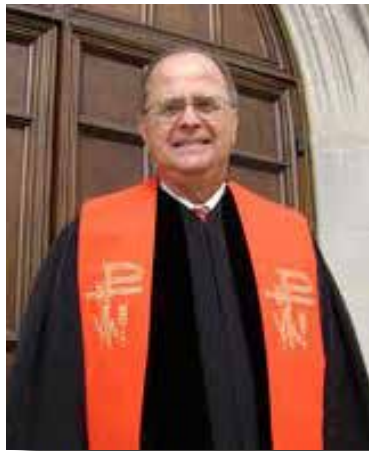

As a result, people cannot easily be identified and understood according to their occupations. There is no such thing as an ordinary workday. What is "9 to 5" anyway? People are available for church activities anytime and no time at all. As a result, the chance to gather as a congregation at one time and place is becoming harder to do. According to the year-end report, we served 11,000 non-members at Church Street last year. How many of them did you encounter? My guess is that you (and I) personally encountered very few of them. Congregations are more fragmented and less traditional than ever.

This is the present which we are living. As we build, we must think about the present habits and lives of the people of this community. As we build, we must plan enough flexibility to work with future generations of Church Streeters. And, we must build.

Building, we are making a commitment to generations of Church Streeters whom we will never see. Building, we give voice to our commitment to Jesus Christ, who calls us to prepare the church to welcome the coming generations of Christians. Building, we speak to the larger community that this congregation is determined to stand in witness to Jesus Christ.

Next time you are at Sunday worship, notice the children on the steps at Moments for God's Children. It is for these that we build -- that the church will be vibrant and ready to welcome them across their lives. It is for children who are not yet born that we build.

How will they work? When will they worship? Who will lead them to faith? To answer all of these questions and more, we build Church Street into the building and into the congregation that it must be.

ONLINE giving

Did you know you can support the programs and ministries of our church by giving online? Log on to www.churchstreetumc.org and click "online giving" on the home page. You can choose a one-time payment or set up a recurring gift.

MUSIC news

Church Street will host the TN American Choral Director's Regional High School Choral Festival on Friday, April 24, all day. We want to be really good hosts to all these high school choirs from East Tennessee who will be adjudicated by judges in our Nave. Choirs are invited to this festival if they received a superior rating at the local JB Lyle Choral Festival. We need your help—we need volunteers to act as greeters and give directions to choir directors, singers and bus drivers, etc... We will have as many as 30 choirs in and out throughout the day. Would you be willing to work a 3-4 hour shift? If so, please contact Tim Ward at 521-0276 or tward@churchstreetumc.org. This event is a wonderful opportunity to expose these young singers to our church while giving all the choirs a really warm Church Street welcome!

SHARING shop

We appreciate your continued support of both Sharing Shop locations. Here is a list of most needed items: shampoo, deodorant, diapers, Depends, laundry detergent, dishwashing liquid, umbrellas, ponchos, maternity clothes and household items. You may bring these items to the church office or place them in the marked bin outside the kitchen, across from room 118. Your donations mean so much to our customers and no donation is too small!

Remember to wear red each Sunday as a symbol of your commitment to pray for our church during the Capital Campaign!
