Reception to Honor Pastor Andy

The Staff-Parish Relations Committee invites you to a reception honoring Pastor Andy to celebrate his retirement after 43 years of service in the United Methodist Church.

Please join us this Sunday, June 14, from 2-4 p.m. in Parish Hall. If you would like to contribute to a love offering for Pastor Andy, please place a designated check in the offering plate or drop a check by the church office. You may also give online at www.churchstreetumc.org.

Summer Lecture Series Begins This Sunday

The Summer Lecture Series will be held on Sundays, June 14, 21 & 28, in Parish Hall beginning at 9:40 a.m. This year, Dr. Phillip Sherman will explore what the Bible assumes about the nature of animal lives (do they have souls and do they 'think?') and examine whether biblical texts could or should translate into contemporary concerns for the lives of animals. A devious serpent, goring oxen, a talking donkey, bereaved mother birds, and possessed swine: the Bible is more heavily populated with animals than is often recognized. Animals have not been a central concern for readers of Scripture. It has been argued that the Christian tradition is, rightly or wrongly, concerned only with what human beings are and how they relate to other human beings. Concern for animal well-being may be honorable, but it is not seen to be a necessary Christian virtue.

Join Us For Vacation Bible School

It's not too late to register for this year's Vacation Bible School. We hope you will join us for three evenings of fun, June 15-17. Each night will begin at 5:30 p.m. with an optional snack supper ($2 per person). VBS programming will be from 6-8 p.m. Register your child (4 years old - 5th grade) at www.churchstreetumc.org. Please contact Sara Pierce at spierce@churchstreetumc.org for more information or to volunteer!

Adult Bible Study Offered During VBS

During Vacation Bible School (June 15-17), Rev. Rick Isbell, Minister of Discipleship, will offer an adult elective study based on the book by Adam Hamilton entitled, Making Sense of the Bible. The study invites participants into an honest conversation about the Bible and the questions we all have about the Bible. The study will involve video presentations by Rev. Hamilton and small group discussion. While purchase of the book is recommended, it is not required to participate in the class. If interested, please contact Rick Isbell at risbell@churchstreetumc.org. Please note: a minimum of 10 people are needed for the class to be offered.

Volunteers Needed

The Worship Committee is searching for a few volunteers to start, end and finalize the CD recordings for our 11 a.m. worship services. The goal is to duplicate worship recordings for our shut-ins. The volunteer will need to be at the sound system in the south balcony by 10:55 a.m. and stay through the closing voluntary. Simple training will be provided to each volunteer. This is a great way to assist those who can't be with us in worship. If you can volunteer, please contact Tim Ward at 521-0276 or Rev. Jan Wade at 521-0264.

WNAF Features The Voice of the Vols

Join us for our next Wednesday Noon Adult Fellowship on June 24, at 12:30 p.m. Our guest speaker will be Bob Kesling, "The Voice of the Vols." Bob was named lead announcer on the Vol

Radio Network in 1999. He is the play-by-play voice for Tennessee football and basketball on the 70-plus stations that make up the Vol Network. Come hear more about his career and all things Vols. Make your lunch reservations by calling the church at 524-3048 or by e-mailing reservations@churchstreetumc.org by Monday, June 22.

Take Me Out to the Ballgame

Adult Council is sponsoring a trip to a Tennessee Smokies game on Friday, June 19. We plan to meet at the ballpark at 6:40 p.m. and tickets will be purchased on-site. Please call the church office at 524-3048 by Wednesday, June 17, to make a reservation so we can have an accurate headcount of who will be joining us for the game. We hope you can join us and stay for the fireworks after the game!

Kay Center Honor Roll

Father's Day is just a few weeks away. We invite you to join the Kay Center Honor Roll by honoring a special man in your life by including him in our Father's Day Honor Roll--your father, grandfather, uncle, brother, teacher or friend.

Honor Roll funds will be used to support the Kay Center. Please stop by the tables located in the breezeway on Sunday, June 14, between 9:30-11 a.m. Donations should be made to Church Street United Methodist Church (please write KSCC in the memo line.)

Getting Ahead Graduation Ceremony

Everyone is invited to attend the graduation ceremony for the next class of Getting Ahead on Monday, June 15, at 6 p.m. at Vestal UMC. Rev. Darryll Rasnake, who inspired the broader Beacon of Hope vision for this outreach ministry, will be the keynote speaker. The ceremony culminates eight weeks of intensive investigation of the causes of poverty and the individual resources each student needs to chart a positive future story. The students have prepared an individualized plan highlighting changes they desire. Mentors will monitor their progress and offer encouragement and support as requested or needed. The graduation ceremony is designed to recognize the students' accomplishments and commitment to change. Eleven students started the class and all are scheduled to complete course requirements. This represents a 100% graduation rate. Nationally the completion rate is 75%. The "Getting Ahead in a Just Getting By World" program represents the second class commencement ceremony for BOH.

Yard Sale Donations Needed

Please consider donating items to the upcoming yard sale hosted by volunteers of the Beacon of Hope ministry at Vestal UMC. The sale will take place on Saturday, June 20, from 8 a.m. until noon and all proceeds will benefit the food co-op, benevolence and the Sharing Shop. We are hoping for lots of donations and we will accept most anything in good condition except clothing, books and computers. You may drop off your items at Vestal UMC on the following days:

- Wednesday, June 17, 4-7 p.m.
- Thursday, June 18, 1-4 p.m.
- Friday, June 19, 1-4 p.m.

There is a driveway between the main church building and the fellowship hall and volunteers will be there to help with the items on those days. If you would like to help with the sale, or need help with your items, please contact Pat Bellingrath at 591-6274 or Richard Ginn at 599-5047.

Beacon of Hope Food Co-op

The Beacon of Hope Food Co-op members are so appreciative of the outpouring of Christian love and generosity you have shown through your gifts of food. This ministry would not be possible without the ongoing generous food donations made each week, and everyone involved in this ministry thanks you for being partners with us.

During the summer months children will be at home and the need for food will increase dramatically. Please consider picking up a few extra items at the grocery store from the list below and placing them in the box outside the kitchen. If you need assistance to bring the food, please contact Tresa Childs at 985-0399 or child4u@att.net.

List: Cereal, Grits/Oatmeal, Pancake Mix, Syrup, Granola Bars, Breakfast Bars, Juice, Coffee, Pasta, Pasta Sauce, Canned Meat, Soup, Crackers, Peanut Butter, Jelly, Canned Vegetables, Canned Fruit, Flavored Pasta/Rice, Instant Potatoes, Macaroni & Cheese, Mayo, Mustard, Ketchup, Sugar, Sugar Substitute, Flour, Cornmeal, Oil.

SINGLES news

The Singles ministry invites you to join us for FOCUS on Tuesday, June 16. Susan Fowlkes will speak on the importance of nutrition and how we can improve our overall health by the choices we make. Please call the Church by Monday, June 15th, for dinner reservations. ($7 per person) The program will begin at 6:30.

UMW news

Please join us for our next UMW book club. We will gather in Cox Parlor on Wednesday, June 17, at 1:30 p.m. to hear Pat Bellingrath review the book Faith & Struggle on Smokey Mountain by Benigo Beltran. We hope you will join us. All are welcome and you do not need to have read the book to participate.

KAY CENTER news

The Kay Center is a proud recipient of an Akima Club grant. The funds received will provide activities for our participants, including entertainers, gardening supplies, cooking classes, and more. The Akima Club has supported the Kay Center throughout the years by awarding grants to support our activity programs and scholarship fund. We are so thankful to the Akima Club members and all they do to make community grants possible!

Have you recently changed your address, phone number or e-mail address? Please call the church office at 524-3048 to let us know so we can keep our records up-to-date.
