Blessing of the Animals

On Sunday, September 27, we will continue the Church Street tradition of Blessing of the Animals. All are invited to bring their pets to this unique service of worship where we thank God for our furry, fuzzy, feathered and/or scaly friends. The service begins at 3 p.m. in the Courtyard and pets receive a blessing by the Church Street clergy. This service is open to the community. Pets should be on a leash or in a cage if appropriate, and should be well-mannered. You will be responsible for cleaning up after your pet should the need arise. We hope you will join us as we celebrate our faithful companions in the tradition of St. Francis of Assisi and his great love for all God’s creatures.

Hogwarts Holiday Coming Soon

Now is the time to sign your child up for a one-day fall break adventure for Harry Potter fans. Hogwarts Holiday will take place on Monday, October 12, from 9 a.m. - 4 p.m. It’s suggested for children in first through fifth grades. Building on the Harry Potter stories, children will have a holiday from Hogwarts classes and will visit the holiday village of nearby Hogsmeade where they will experience the fun of the various magical shops through games, crafts, music, and cooking.

The cost is $20 per student to cover lunch, snack, and all supplies.

Register online at www.churchstreetumc.org. Volunteers are needed to help make the day a success. If you can lend your magic, e-mail Sue Isbell at sueisbell2629@gmail.com.

Wednesday Women’s Bible Study

Brave: Honest Questions Women Ask - by Angela Thomas

We all have insecurities, flaws, and struggles that we are afraid to address. But if we can be brave enough to raise the questions, God will answer us. We will have weekly homework and a DVD on the following topics: I am worn out. I am suffering a thorn. I am undisciplined. I am trembling inside. I am invisible. I am broken. Join us as we dig into scripture for God’s truth on these topics.

This seven-week study will begin on Wednesday, October 7, and conclude on Wednesday, November 18. Books will be handed out at the first class. We meet from 9-11 a.m. in room 201-A. The cost of the study guide is $13. Childcare is provided. Please contact Juanita Cowles at 865-712-3262 or by email at Juanita.cowles@att.net for information and to sign up.

Reflections

—Rev. Nicole Krewson

September is National Suicide Prevention month. I recently had the privilege of being the keynote speaker for the East Tennessee Suicide Prevention Network's "Diversity in Faith" event. A panel of faith leaders representing different faith traditions discussed how our respective traditions respond to suicide and how we can better be in ministry to those who are contemplating suicide as well as those who are survivors of suicide.

As the keynote speaker, I was asked to share my experiences with suicide. When I stopped to think about how deeply I've been affected by suicide throughout my life, I counted seven people among my family, friends, and colleagues who have died by suicide. I've tried to be open and honest with others about my own grief. I've been heartbroken, angry, confused, and even questioned my faith in the face of the loss of my loved ones. I want others to know it's okay to be open and honest with our grief before God.

The witness of Romans chapter 8: "Nothing shall separate us from the love of God in Christ" has been a great comfort for me. Another source of comfort is the way Jesus showed compassion and care for those who were hurting. Also, knowing I am not alone in my grief has been a source of comfort and hope.

When I spoke of my experience, I shared that my first response is to be a caring, compassionate, and non-judgmental listener. We heard from the epistle of James a few weeks ago in worship, and I cannot begin to stress how important his advice to be quick to listen and slow to speak is in helping those who are hurting. Feelings of isolation and hopelessness often are felt by those contemplating suicide as well as those who have lost loved ones to suicide. One of the first steps of prevention and healing is to simply listen to those who are hurting.

Moving beyond the stigma and shame that often accompany mental and emotional health issues is also important. Illnesses affecting how we feel emotionally are just as real and profound as illnesses that affect our physical well-being. We never tell people with heart disease or cancer to just pull themselves out of it. Understanding and compassion must be given to those dealing with mental and emotional health issues.

If you or a loved one is struggling with thoughts of suicide or if you are a survivor who is grieving, there is hope, and there is help. You are loved. Know you can talk to me or any of the other clergy. Also, know that if you need help beyond what we can provide professionally, we will help you find the care you need.

Blessings,
Pastor Nicole

You may volunteer by visiting www.churchstreetumc.org/habitat\_2015. More than 65 volunteers are needed to make the build a success. ## Greeters Needed

The Welcome and Outreach Committee is looking for Sunday morning greeters! As we attempt to cover all of our entrances and more effectively welcome everyone who enters Church Street, we would like YOU to consider helping. Greeting is a fun and easy way to serve our large, but very friendly church. Greeters serve for about 25 minutes, one Sunday per month by opening doors, answering questions (resources provided), and most importantly, extending a warm welcome and offering a smiling face to our church family. It is a great way to catch up with old friends and make new ones! If you would like more information or to sign up, contact Cindy Hollingsworth at 363-1124 or cindyhollingsworth@comcast.net
