School Supplies Offering Thank You

Our school supply drive was an amazing success because of your generosity and compassion. We serve God through serving others and your donations enabled many children to walk into school with new and necessary supplies. Our faith calls us to care and to show love for our neighbors, to support each other and to help in whatever ways we can. Serving others is truly at the heart of who we are as United Methodists. Our generosity also shows our neighbors that we love and care for them; that they matter to us. So, thank you for helping us to reach out in love for our neighbors who need our support and our prayers. You have made a difference in the lives of many and we hope you will continue to support our outreach to those around us whose lives are not easy. Continue to pray for these students, their families and ask that God’s love and grace surround them.

NEW BIBLE STUDIES THIS FALL:

Disciple Fast Track on The Prophets and The Letters of Paul

If you are short on time but would like to be involved in a quality small group Bible study, then Disciple Fast Track is for you. This fall Rev. Rick Isbell with offer the first part of a new study on The Prophets on Sunday afternoon/evening. This 12-week study will involve scripture reading, reflection, leader/DVD presentations, small group discussion and application to today's world. The fall study will examine many of the major and minor prophets and the historical context in which they lived. If you would like a disciplined Bible study with fellow Christians in a relaxed setting, then this study might be for you. The orientation/interest session will be on Sunday, Aug. 26, 4 p.m. in room 204. All persons who would like to see the material and what is involved are invited to attend. The actual sessions will begin on Sept. 9 if there is enough interest. Contact Rev. Isbell at risbell@churchstreetumc.org for more information.

Wednesday Ladies Bible Study

Beloved Disciple—The Life and Ministry of John

Wednesday Ladies Bible Study by Beth Moore will begin on Wednesday, Aug. 29, and run through Nov. 14. This DVD and workbook study will meet in room 201A from 9:30–11:30 a.m. The cost of the workbook is $16 and will be handed out the first day of class. Every disciple and early follower of Christ left a legacy for future believers. John's legacy was love. Perhaps like no other disciple, John understood that relationship was the point. Every command of Christ and call to obedience is to enhance relationship and place the recipient in a posture the Giver can bless.

This study is about finding our way to the heart of Jesus and reclining so closely that our pulse begins to throb in tandem, loving what He loves and hating what He hates. In John's three letters he left a legacy of divine love to ignite the passion of future believers. And while exiled on Patmos, John recorded His risen Lord's glorious revelation of victory and hope. John was free to love because he was so utterly convinced that he was loved. He called himself the beloved disciple. How differently would each follower live if we characterized ourselves above all else as the beloved disciple of Jesus Christ? This is the goal of our journey. Please join us.

Childcare is available but must be requested prior to class starting. Please contact Juanita Cowles at 865-712-3262 or by email at Juanita.cowles@att.net to sign up or for more information.

WHAT IS YOUR VISION FOR CHURCH STREET?

CLERGY CORNER

Let's Think Together about ... Why I Sing a Prayer?

Recently, I have had a few people ask why I have chosen to sometimes sing my prayers. As the blessing of our meal and time together at Soup Kitchen, I sang "Spirit Song" (Hymn #347) early in July. After that, the secret that I like to use sung prayers got out! While I would like to take credit, the idea to sing "Spirit of the Living God" (Hymn #393) was not mine own.

This spring, at one of the worship services specially for the graduating seniors, a Divinity School professor, Dr. Valerie Cooper, was scheduled to preach. Dr. Cooper has graced her students many times before with her elegant singing and can bring tears to your eyes with just a note. On that morning, she stepped into the wooden pulpit of the Divinity School Chapel, took a breath and opened her mouth. The first line of "Spirit of the Living God" poured slowly from her lips to wash over every student and faculty member gathered in the space. Chills crept up my arms as other voices joined in her prayer. Harmonies mixed with her hopeful melody and the sound resonated in this stone sanctuary. To say it was a holy moment is an understatement. Dr. Cooper's sermon began on this very sacred note and delivered the Word of God to my graduating class.

The memory of Dr. Cooper's prayer is very powerful for me. My understanding of God is deeply related to my love of music. Hymns and songs provide a formative theology, in which we declare our beliefs in singing. When we lift up "The Church's One Foundation is Jesus Christ Her Lord," we not only affirm Christ as the cornerstone of the church, but also pray that we stay firmly rooted in Christ. Occasionally singing the Lord's Prayer, rather than always speaking it, allows us to hear these familiar words in a different way. My intent in singing my prayers or including part of a song in a sermon is to communicate more fully God's word. Music is how I feel closest to God, so I hope you might find the Holy Spirit in our midst and join in my sung prayer.

—Rev. Palmer Cantler
