Dr. Jim Fleming Returns to Church Street

The Education Committee is pleased to welcome Dr. Jim Fleming back to Church Street for a series of five lectures over two days. This year Dr. Fleming will focus on "Little Words in the Bible That Make a Difference."

Dr. Fleming is the founder and director of the Explorations in Antiquity Center in LaGrange, GA. There, ancient history comes alive with full-scale archaeological reconstructions of discoveries from the ancient world. While living in Israel from 1974 to 2006, Dr. Fleming founded and directed the World of the Bible Archaeological Museum and Pilgrim Center in Jerusalem. He holds an Ed.D. degree from Southwestern Theological Seminary and has taught classes at Hebrew University in Israel. He is Adjunct Faculty member of a number of accredited graduate schools.

Dr. Fleming always brings to his lectures warmth, good humor, deep conviction and a remarkable knowledge of the archaeology, geography, history and theology of the Bible. We are pleased to welcome him back to Church Street.

The schedule of lectures is below. All lectures will be held in Parish Hall and are free of charge. There is a charge for dinner on Sunday, November 3. Cost is $7 for adults and $4 for children. Reservations can be made by calling 524-3048 or e-mailing reservations@churchstreetumc.org.

There will be a resource table of lecture notebooks (past and present) as well as gift items from Israel and the Explorations in Antiquity Center in LaGrange, GA.

Little Words in the Bible That Make a Difference

Saturday, November 2

8:30-9 a.m. Gathering Time & Coffee

9-10:15 a.m. - When Jesus Saw Their Faith: How the faith of others can help those who lack faith

10:30-11:45 a.m. - Five Barley Loaves and Two Small Fish: How God can bless and multiply our small gifts

Sunday, November 3

9:40-10:40 a.m. - The First Day of the Week: How understanding the Feast of the Firstfruit helps interpret Resurrection Sunday

4-5 p.m. - Now there were 153 Fish: How the Apostles learned to include as many people as there are kinds of people

5:45-7 p.m. - There were Three Generations of 14: Looking to the promised Davidic descendant

Trunk or Treat is This Sunday

Our annual trick-or-treating event is scheduled for this Sunday, October 27, from 5:30-7 p.m. in the Magnolia Lot. We need plenty of cars to fill the parking lot to make the evening fun for everyone. All you have to do is choose a theme, decorate your car, and have plenty of goodies to hand out. Please prepare for at least 100 kids. Participating cars need to be parked and ready by 5:15 p.m. Cars entering the lot after 5:15 p.m. pose a danger to children who arrive early so we ask your cooperation with this schedule. Supper will be served outside that evening (cost: $5 for adults, $3 for children) and there will be inflatables in the gym beginning at 6:15 p.m. Bring your friends and neighbors and be part of this fun fall event.

Bed Linens for KARM

Knox Area Rescue Ministries (KARM) sleeps between 250 and 400 men and women every night of the year. With the weather turning cooler, the beds will consistently be full with overflow using mats on the floor. KARM provides simple bed linens for each guest every night and is in need of new sets to prepare for the winter months. We are asking Church Streeters to donate new twin sheet sets consisting of a fitted sheet, flat sheet, and pillow case.

There is some confusion about KARM only accepting a specific sheet from Bed Bath and Beyond; this is not the case. KARM is in the process of opening a Men's transitional housing unit that uses specific sheets. In this instance we are asking for sheets for the overnight dorms: Hope Haven and Samaritans Place, ANY twin sheet set will be great. If you would leave your gift of new linens in the main church office, it will be greatly appreciated. If you have questions, please contact Marc Gamble at mgamble@karm.org.

Thank You to Soup Kitchen Volunteers

Thank you to everyone who volunteered at the 5th Annual Bill & Fran Sarrett BBQ on Thursday, October 17. We served more than 380 meals as we welcomed our homeless neighbors to Parish Hall. We greatly appreciate everyone who helped out by preparing and serving the meal. If you are interested in volunteering at the Soup Kitchen on a weekly basis, please see Pastor Darryll.

Reflections

—Rev. Andy Ferguson

Last Sunday in Moments for All God's Children, Pastor Darryll talked with the children about three kinds of prayer. He has been reading a book by Anne Lamott. One type of prayer he mentioned was "Wow." Have you ever said, "Wow!" to God?

In recent days, I have been experiencing the "Wow" prayer -- not practicing, not learning. I have been experiencing the "Wow" prayer each time I have stepped out into this long series of splendid fall days. The autumn colors are on their way. The air is crisp and bright. No doubt, some rainy days will come, but so far we have been blessed with a long series of Wow days in East Tennessee.

One of the reasons generous stewardship is possible for Christians is the experience of God's Wows. We have so much for which to be grateful. We see so many places where God's gift of creation is still the greatest show on earth. As the great hymn, "For the Beauty of the Earth" declares, "God is the ruler yet." Confident of God, we go forward with hope and purpose.

Our stewardship campaign continues as we invite those who have not made a pledge to the 2014 ministries of Church Street to make their pledge. The Finance Committee will work with the other committees of the church to craft a ministry plan based on the support we pledge. Your pledge is important! Many thanks to all those who have already turned in a pledge card.

We have much to do in the coming year:

- An exploratory committee is looking at updating the Parish Hall and all the first level of the church building.
- We will grow into small group ministry, which will allow more places for new people to find a group to share their faith.
- We will continue to add Sunday School opportunities.
- We will put in place a comprehensive Food Services plan to provide fellowship over meals.

It is going to be a busy year ahead. God's will is being done and will be done among us and through us.

Thanksgiving Baskets

Every year, our church is blessed to be able to provide Thanksgiving baskets to needy families in the Knoxville area. This year we are also helping Fran Lynch and Willow UMC in Willow, Alaska, provide baskets to their community. For this to happen we need donations to purchase the food items here and in Willow. We also will need people to assemble and deliver the baskets in our area. Getting involved in this ministry is easy! If you would like to:

- Provide a monetary donation to buy food items, make checks payable to Church Street UMC and note "Thanksgiving Basket" on your check. A suggested donation of $50 will pay for one basket in Knoxville or Willow.
- Assemble baskets for the Knoxville area by coming to the Gym on Thursday evening, November 21, at 6:30 p.m. A pizza snack will be provided.
- Deliver the baskets by coming to the Gym on Sunday, November 24, following Sunday School or 11 a.m. Worship to pick up a basket for a family near your home to be delivered on that afternoon.

Your help is needed and you will be blessed!

MUSIC news

Join us on Sunday, November 10, at 9 p.m. in the Nave as the men's ensemble Orison will make its debut performance as part of the Church Street Master Arts Series in a service of Compline as it might have been sung during the sixteenth century in England. No ticket is required.

CHILDREN'S news

This Sunday, October 27, is Children's Sunday at Church Street. Our children will be active participants in both services. Please join us for this special day as our young people lead us in worship.

FOOD services

Food services is seeking someone to assist in the kitchen during special events and occasionally on Sunday evenings. This person must be 18 or older and willing to learn to run equipment such as the dishwasher. Please contact Kate Bledsoe at kbledsoe@churchstreetumc.org if you are interested.

BODY works

BodyWorks, is underway at Church Street. Sponsored by Covenant Health, BodyWorks is a convenient, affordable fitness class that incorporates a variety of exercise options for a complete workout. Each class is taught by a certified instructor from Covenant Health and is appropriate for just about any level of fitness. Below are the specifics about this opportunity at Church Street.

- Every Monday & Thursday, 5:30-6:30 p.m. in the gym
- $3/each class, $2/church members, first class is free
- No membership fees
- No contracts to sign
- Pay as you go, you only pay for the classes you attend
- Bring your mat, weights, water and appropriate shoes

Stewardship

We will be loyal to the United Methodist Church and support it with our prayers, presence, gifts, service and witness.

Van Drivers Needed

We need van drivers to help with our Monday night Community Worship service. It is a great blessing to help our guests who have no other means of transportation to get to church each week. You will need to be available from 5:15 p.m. until 8 p.m. one Monday each month but the monthly schedule is flexible. Please talk with Pastor Darryll if you can help.

Advent Devotions Still Needed

An Advent devotional book is being prepared with devotions written by Church Street members and illustrations from our children. We need your contribution. Please consider writing an Advent-related devotion which includes scripture, meditation (250 words) and closing prayer. Submissions need to be e-mailed to Caroline Lamar at clamar@churchstreetumc.org no later than Friday, October 25. While all submissions are welcome, there is no guarantee that all will be included. The booklet is sponsored by the Congregational Care Committee.

Homebound Communion Plans Being Made

Church Street will reach out to its homebound members on All Saints Sunday afternoon, November 3. Teams are being assembled and trained to go out and serve Communion to all our members who cannot get to church on a regular basis. If you have been invited to be a part of a team or would like to volunteer, please contact Rick Isbell, Minister of Discipleship at 521-0266 or risbell@churchstreetumc.org. If you know of someone who would like to receive Communion, please contact Rev. Isbell no later than Friday, October 25, so adequate plans can be made.
