Parking Announcement

As we return to worship at the church building, please remember to make sure your parking sticker is on your vehicle. If you need a parking sticker, please call the front office and we will mail one to you (865-524-3048). There are several events coming up at the Convention Center, and we will have security in our parking lots on Sundays to ensure that the lots are being used for church parking during services.

College Scholarships Deadline Extension!

Attention College Students! Due to an issue with our submission format, our college scholarship application and reference form have needed an adjustment on our end. They are updated and fully functional now! We are extending the deadline to April 30 for you and your references to complete and submit the application. Unfortunately, if you have already submitted your application, you will need to submit again using the new form. Please contact Jenny Cross with any questions at jcross@churchstreetumc.org. We apologize for this inconvenience and look forward to receiving your applications!

Surplus Print Lenten Devotionals

We have a limited supply of print Lenten devotionals from this year. They do not contain the entirety of the devotions shared online, but they contain a number of Voices from the Past devotions pulled from historical CSUMC Lenten devotionals. If you would like to request one, please contact the church office at 524-3048 and we will mail one (while supplies last).

UMW

UMW April General Meeting: "Raising a Voice"

Will and Katie Boggs, co-founders of "Raising a Voice" will be our guest speakers for our Tuesday, April 13th General Meeting at 11 am on Zoom.

The mission of "Raising a Voice" is to end human trafficking locally and internationally through gospel-centered transformation and global outreach. Locally "Raising a Voice" has an outreach center for women in vulnerable and exploitive situations in East Knoxville. They also have a training program for individuals interested in working in anti-trafficking and they participate in many community events and prayer walks.

Christian Education Offering

The Last Supper: Risking the Loss of Friends (Open Doors Class)

The Open Door class will continue their series, Entering the Passion of Jesus by Amy-Jill Levine by looking at the Last Supper. This pivotal event in Jesus' life is in all four Gospels. Each Gospel has its own version, so we must look at each to appreciate the differences.

This coming Sunday, April 11, we will look at the themes of The Passover, betrayal, the bread & cup, and service in the four Gospels. The class will meet earlier this Sunday from 8:45-9:30 am on Zoom. Please make note of this one-time change.

This Lenten series by Amy-Jill Levine, "Entering the Passion of Jesus" is led by Rev. Rick Isbell, retired Minister of Discipleship. Remember the "door is always open" for others to join us on Sunday mornings.

+ Click here to join on Sundays at 9 am. Passcode is 987123.

All are welcome at Church Street !

We believe every person is of sacred worth and created in God's image. We welcome and celebrate the gifts God has given to all persons without regard to race, color, national origin, ethnicity, age, gender, disability, status, economic condition, sexual orientation, gender identity, or religious affiliation. We respect diversity of opinion and expressions of Christian faith. We believe God loves everyone unconditionally! As God loves us, so let us love and serve in the name of Christ.
